Dedication

MRS. JESSIE ROYER

Many things in life are forgotten, but the memory of Mrs. Jessie Royer will linger in the hearts of those who knew her. A charming person with an inspiring enthusiasm, she was a friend to students and teachers alike. For twenty years she gave loving and faithful service to Central. She promoted world understanding in her classroom, living it as she taught it. To the memory of our beloved teacher we dedicate this 1951 Cardinal.

SENIOR CLASS

The senior class of '51 came to Central as confused sophomores. Being just This Side of Innocence, we were bewildered by the activities of enrolling and fascinated by the new sound system. To begin our activities at Central, we elected John Brown as our class president. To start the year off right, the student council gave a sock-hop in our honor.

In our junior year, we were led by Marvin Gerson and John Brown. One of the highlights of the school year was our junior play, Our Hearts Were Young and Gay. Another big event was the Junior-Senior Prom, planned and financed by the junior class. Our junior year was certainly a big success, and what's more, we still had our senior year to look forward to!

In the fall of 1950, we returned to Central with the wonderful feeling that at last the big year was here! We were seniors, and in the spring, during Commencement Week, we could stop and Rest and Be Thankful for our three wonderful years at good old O. H. S. Sam Thompson, serving as our class president both semesters, led the class through our many and varied activities. The Junior-Senior Prom was a great success, and the last two weeks of May were filled with our senior play, senior assembly, and Commencement exercises. Yes, our senior year was certainly glorious, and a year we will always remember.

JUNIOR CLASS

We began, when we were So Big, as sophomores, just out of various junior high schools, by joining clubs, providing representatives for athletic teams, supporting our school in all activities, such as basketball and football games, and electing the most capable persons as our sophomore officers with Ronnie Browning as president and Alrho Sowards as vice-president.

We started our second year with Great Expectations, discovering new talents and interests in our own groups. We continued making our classes and school better by re-electing Ronnie Browning and Alpha Sowards as presidents.

We were especially proud of the junior sportsmen who have helped to better our teams and win athletic honors.

Of the four major queens that Central has had this year, two have been juniors; Barbara Miller, the Band Queen, and Di Anne Greenberg, the Basketball Queen.

Our junior play was magnificent with Nancy Poston, Virginia Davis, and Gene Kanaly in the leading roles of "Cheaper by the Dozen."

Concluding this year has been a hard thing to do, but in no better way could this be done than with the Junior-Senior Prom, the perfect climax.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

We sophomores have finished the FIRST YEAR at Central. We've contributed our share of talent, athletic ability, and scholarship to our school. We have, in one short year, learned to love Central and her traditions. We are sure, with such a fine group of officers and such wonderful sponsors as we have had, that our sophomore year could not have been other than perfect.

FOOTBALL

1. Coach A. D. Jacobson.
2. Charles Linton, end, was the first Cardinal to make lineman-of-the-week. He was selected for the title because of his defensive game against the Norman Tigers. In that battle Charlie recovered three fumbles.
3. Jerry Churchill was the only senior center on last year's squad. He had the distinction of being named as team captain for the 1950 season. The Shawnee game was Jerry's best performance of the year, as he showed his true defensive and offensive abilities in the 48 minutes that he participated.
4. Buddy Blott stood as the Redbirds' largest lineman with a gross weight of 215 pounds. Buddy went out for football in junior high school and showed the qualities of an outstanding tackle. This year he proved his abilities and next year will probably show more.
5. Coach Earl Applebee.
6. Ronnie Cordell reaped all-city, all-district, and all-state honors in '50 to become the second end from Central in two years to take the position. (In 1949 Charlie Johnson was selected.) Although hampered by a severely twisted ankle, Ronnie continued to give the opponents trouble defensively and offensively. He caught six passes to lead the other ends in that department.
7. Bill Finley was the most underrated tackle in the city last year. He seldom missed a tackle, as his opponents will grant. The 195 pounder was also the first Central football to play the full 48 minutes last year.
8. Delbert McNabb, another guard, never received any limelight throughout the season. However, Delbert's teammates fully realized his ability, as they grandly dubbed him "Old Reliable."
9. Morris Taylor was the deadliest defensive halfback the Cardinals possessed last year. His menacing shoe-string tackles put quite a few opponents out of the games. However, Morris did have offensive talent, too. Against Enid, Taylor scored the winning touchdown.
10. LeRoy Wilder, junior halfback, was Parris' understudy last year. The "Penguin" romped for one touchdown, a 54 yarder, for his only scoring. His last year should be a good one.
11. Howard Parris led all Central backs in scoring with seven touchdowns. His biggest night was against Tulsa Central when he tallied three times. Chief was selected to the second string all-city squad, and to the all-district team.
12. Jack Hodges finished his second year as Central's first string fullback. When Jack wasn't reeling off long yardage, he was handling the team's punting chores. Jack captured the second string all-city spot in his last year of football for Central.
13. Jim Stavros was the Cards' all-city, all-district guard and defensive signal caller. The "Greek god's" sparkling offensive play against the Tulsa Central Braves won him the lineman-of-the-week honor.
14. Darrell Pierce recovered from a bad knee that he received last year in time to quarterback the Cards this year. Darrell starred in every game, but his fine running in the Norman and Enid games highlighted his football season.
15. Leon Godwin started regular duty when McNabb fell ill just before the Enid game. During that time, Leon very capably patrolled the guard spot. Exceptionally fast, Godwin merits praise as he relentlessly hauled down opposing backs from behind.
16. Larry Adair lettered his sophomore year as a defensive tackle, but last season as a junior, he saw both offensive and defensive duty. His senior year in football should be a memorable one for Central.
17. Bill Sebring missed the last three games on last year's schedule. The tall end was laid up with a stiff charleyhorse that refused to go away. At Enid, Bill was a major figure in the OHS victory, as he continually stopped all end runs that were attempted by the Plainsmen.

1. Paul Boynton played every position in the backfield in '50, but he saw most action as a halfback. In 1949 Paul went out for quarterback and played that position on the "B" team.
2. Fred Cofer, after playing in the seven first games of the season, was injured in a scrimmage and saw the rest of the schedule on crutches. A guard, Freddie had the distinction of catching a pass thrown by his quarterback for an eleven-yard gain. The infraction was never detected, much to Freddie's delight.
3. Don Woods suffered a broken leg in the early season's play, but returned in time to help Central in the Classen contest. Six feet, and 207 pounds, Don was the Redbirds' largest tackle.
4. Louis Antonio, only returning center, played behind Churchill all year, except in the Chickasha game, which he started. Louis was bothered by a bad shoulder that kept slipping out of place during the season; because of this injury Louis saw more experience as an offensive center than as a linebacker.
5. Coach E. H. Miles.
6. Don Perry, sophomore quarterback, has two more years at Central and they are sure to be great ones. His most glaring play came in the Chickasha loss. Don took a kickoff on his own ten yard line and ran it back to the Chicks' thirty.
7. Bob Smith capitalized on his ability as a defensive end and marked up many quarters protecting his end. (Whoops! That one slipped). In track, Bob runs the hurdles, but next year Central expects even more from Bob in football than in track.
8. Evert Dunlap, junior tackle, was the fastest tackle on the squad and was used largely on kickoffs. Redbird fans expect a big year from Evert in 1951.
9. Pete Pagonis, manager, spent his first year at the manager post. Pete displayed great skill at handling the team's needs.
10. Kenneth Wind, junior end, played his most effective ball against the Tulsa Central Braves. Time after time, Kenneth raced through the Tulsa defense to tackle the ball carrier yards behind the line of scrimmage.
11. Harley Bradshaw displayed his potentialities in the season's opener at Duncan. He scooted for long runs of 35 and 46 yards, from his halfback post. He broke his collarbone immediately after the Duncan game, and was unable to play any more. Harley is just a junior.
12. David Hodges, smallest man on the team with 128 pounds, saw duty as quarterback for his second straight year. Although he didn't score a T. D. last year, David engineered many of the six-pointers with his signal calling.
13. Don Davis was one of the Cards' fastest ends. The tall blonde track man was used especially on kickoffs, because of his speed. Centralites expect a good year from Don next season.
14. Bill James, quarterback, is but a sophomore and will be back for two more seasons of football as a quarterback. The soph didn't get in too much game time, but he did show great possibilities.
15. Jim Rogers, trainer, completed his second year in this position. Jim, a really fine fellow and the team's moral support will go far in his training career.
16. Jack Lowman played halfback in 1949, but last year he was switched to the fullback slot because the team had no reserve fullbacks. Jack shone brilliantly in the Chickasha game for his season's best effort.
17. Tom Griffin was used sparingly last year, but he starred as a defensive player because of his exceptional speed. He was largely responsible for the Northeast victory, as he stopped a potential touchdown run just as the half was ending.
18. Ralph Floyd went out for football later than any other varsity player, but saw action in practically all the games that he suited up for. Coach Jacobson used Ralph as a tackle or as a guard frequently throughout the schedule.

BASKETBALL

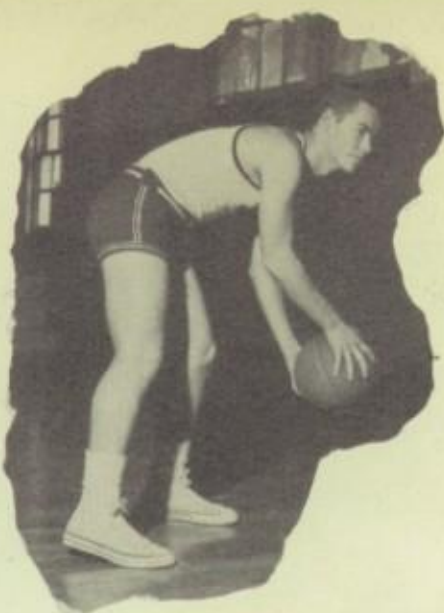

1. Coach Clarence Breithaupt.
2. Sam Thompson, ace Card center, was the city's leading point maker with a potent 19 points per game average. "Sizzlin' Sam" was one of the state's finest offensive players. Central was proud to have Sam on the all-city and all-district teams.
3. John Brown, one of the four seniors on the squad, was a two-year letterman. He was captain of the Cardinal team and was one of the outstanding defensive players. John was hampered all season by a bad kidney which was injured in football.
4. Bill Coffman, forward for the Cardinal five, is a constant threat with his deadly jump shots. Bill, playing his first year, shows great promise and should do well next year.
5. Jim Brockhaus, a Card reserve, was a deadly two-handed shooter. He is also a star pitcher for the baseball team. His last-second basket from mid-court, in the Regionals final with Classen, sent Central into the state tournament.
6. Jack Hodges, known by all as "Jarrin' Jack" for his tremendous ability to rebound, was one of the team's sparkplugs. Jack, a Card footballer, played his first year for the roundballers at forward.
7. Sam Folsom was the team's defensive star. It was old Sam who took the opponents' aces and blanketed them. Sam, a guard, will be back next season and is expected to help carry the load.

BASKETBALL

1. Leroy Wilder, the only three-sport letterman in Central is by far the team's trickiest ball player. A good rebounder for his size, he will be back next year to boost the team.
2. Ronnie Browning, although being a reserve, saw action in almost every game. He is a real hustler and should help the Cards next season at the forward spot.
3. Trainer Jimmy Rogers.
4. Ray Brooks, a sophomore guard, is expected to help the Cards for the next two seasons. Ray is exceptionally fast and uses his speed to good advantage.
5. Bill Beard played for both A and B teams this year. Bill, only a junior, should take over the center chores next season.
6. Charles Wentworth's first year out he hustled his way into a reserve spot on Coach Breithaupt's Cardinal five.
7. Fay Dunbar, a transfer from Mustang, showed great promise by making the squad at mid-season. Fay, a junior, should be a great help to the team next year.

BASEBALL

Central's baseballers have brought more than their share of honors to our Alma Mater, by winning City and Mid-State for the second consecutive year.

The whiz kids of Coach Earl Applebee came through City and Mid-State play with only two setbacks, but were beaten in the Regional semi-finals to have their bid for a State Championship halted.

Coach Applebee started the season with only eight lettermen, two of whom were regulars, but his young kids came through, with veteran outfielder J. F. Leeper leading the way by hitting a lofty .413, which earned him an All-State berth.

At the start of the 1951 season the Cards have only two returning regulars, pitcher Jim Brockhaus and infielder Darrell Pierce, who are expected to carry much of the load.

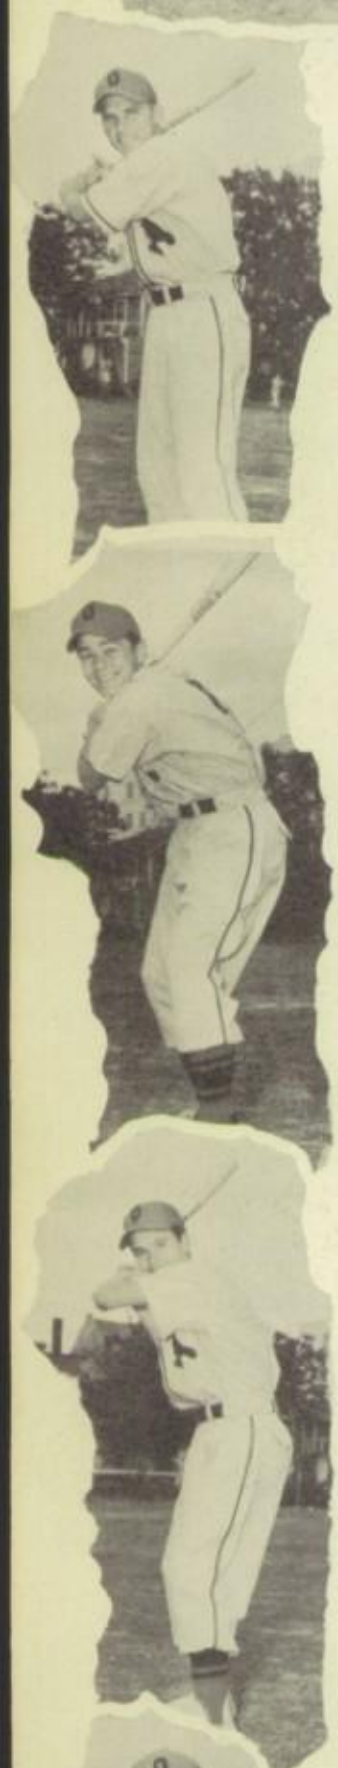

Rounding out the ball club are lettermen Powell Butler, Louis Antonio, Harley Bradshaw, Leroy Wilder, Curly Walton, and Charlie Glass.

TRACK

Central's 1950 thinclads, under the coaching of E. H. Miles, turned in their finest performance of the year by winning the mile relay at the track meet held in connection with the Fort Worth Exposition. First Oklahoma team ever to take the relays from the proud Texans, these boys distinguished themselves by winning over 49 other relay teams.

Louie Miller was the team's leading scorer, with a seasonal total of 66 points. Louie set a new record at Tulsa by throwing the shot 51' 4".

The 1951 track team, under the able coaching of A. D. Jacobson, will be bolstered by returning lettermen Ronnie Cordell, Don Davis, and Bob Smith. To help these Cardinal "lettuce eaters" will be these outstanding prospects: Tom Griffin, Evert Dunlap, Jack Hodges, and Louie Straughn.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Understanding—the light of the world!

Where but on the field of play can greater opportunity be found to foster understanding and comradeship? Whereas music serves as the universal language, play becomes the universal means of understanding. No language is needed between two people at play; their understandings meet through the medium of the game.

The code of sportsmanship need not be verbalized—its core is understanding.

So at Central, the boy or girl who participates in the broad program of sports increases and strengthens his understanding of his fellow men.

Dearest Jimmy;

I don't know how to say this but here goes anyway. You'll never know much it means to me to have gone with you. My only wish is that it could have worked out differently. You don't know how much I wish that. I'll never forget all the wonderful times we had together, and I wish we could have gone together some more. You are one of the "swellest" guys I ever knew, and I mean that from the bottom of my heart even though I did get awfully mad at you. Please don't ever change. It's just as you are now cause I love you that way. I'm pulling for you. I'm with all my heart. You're a great leader. I'm taking to really go for you. I've tried to be a better person. And you are the best. Please don't ever forget me.

All My Love Always,

The Red Skirt Pep Club was organized in 1928, not only to promote pep at games and assemblies, but also to create an air of friendliness and understanding among students.

Red Skirts also sponsor many activities throughout the year. The annual football banquet and Christmas dances were two festivities that highlighted the fall season.

Besides many ushering duties, they presented their annual assembly, which, with the help of Miss Eva Lee and Miss Maybelle Conger, again proved to be one of the best assemblies of the year.

The spring dance and the installation of new officers ended the year's activities for Oklahoma City's oldest pep club for girls.

Back in 1921 a group of boys founded the Red Shirts. It is now claimed that they are the oldest Pep Club west of the Mississippi. The club's main purpose is to create pep at all of the games, but more than that, it is also a social club. Each year the Red Shirts put on a Minstrel, the proceeds being used to buy something for the school as well as to buy books for the library in memory of Central boys killed in World War II. The club sponsors all bus trips for out-of-town games. Each year the members have a Christmas dance and a spring dance, at each of which a sweetheart is announced. This year for the first semester it was cute Nakita Lester, and the second semester it was darling Lila Johnson. The Red Shirts are all for Central High School, and they believe in all of the traditions and ideals. You will always hear them saying,

"You'll find them in the tavern;
You'll find them in the halls;
You'll find them at the game
Yelling 'Rah! Rah! Rah!'"

BLACK SKIRTS

The Black Skirt Pep Club, founded in 1940, has continually, through the years, promoted school spirit and understanding.

One of the activities is a Founders' Day Banquet at Beverly's Restaurant. Other social events are teas and pledges' hay rack rides. Two of the biggest social events of the year are the Christmas and spring dances. These always get a lot of attention. There also is a spring picnic.

In addition to their social functions, Black Skirts have ushered frequently at the Municipal Auditorium and at the Home Theater. They are always present at all assemblies and games.

BLACK SHIRTS

Like other pep clubs at Central, the Black Shirts try to promote school spirit by being present at all school activities, and by helping the members to express themselves better socially.

The highlights of this year's activities were a hayrack ride, the Sadie Hawkins all-school dance, the Central-Classsen preview, and the Christmas and spring formal dances. The most popular club activities of the year were the informal parties given for members and their dates.

Under the guidance of Mr. Hicks the Black Shirt pep club completed another progressive year in its history.

CARDINAL PEP CLUB

The Cardinal Pep Club is the only pep club of its kind in the school, because both boys and girls are eligible for membership. There is no pledging, although members must maintain a passing grade average to remain active.

The Cardinals can be seen at the games, yelling for our team and wearing uniforms of red and black, which represent Central High. Other activities in which the Cardinals participate are a Christmas party, an annual hayrack ride, the presentation of an annual Thanksgiving assembly, and the furnishing of Cardinal stickers for the entire student body.

BAND

The O. H. S. Band deserves unlimited praise for its splendid cooperation as one of the "pep-producers" of Central. Under the fine leadership of Mr. Dunn the band played and marched at football and basketball games, parades and pep assemblies, helping to keep the spirit of the school up to its usual high standards.

One of the most effective displays of the year was at the Coronation of the Band Queen. At this ceremony individual cap lights were used to add new glories to the performances of our musicians.

The band journeyed to Wichita Falls, Texas, to take part in the homecoming parade of Midwestern College at which time they made a very good showing for Central High School.

The band also sponsored the annual Fun Night at Central, and played for the Junior class play and for the Senior graduation exercises.

DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

The Red Skirts Drum and Bugle Corps is one of the first and best known marching organizations in the state. These girls in their snappy red and black uniforms participated in Central's Fun Night and pep assemblies, performed at football games, marched in parades, and gave a sock hop. The corps marched in the Midwestern homecoming parade at Wichita Falls, Texas, in the fall and entered the state marching contest in the spring. Officers for the next year were announced at the annual hayrack ride in May.

The twirling corps is the newest addition to the Black Skirt Serenaders. The group consists of eighteen girls and a drum majorette. After many strenuous hours of practice, the twirlers gave their spectacular initial performance at the Shawnee-Central football game at Shawnee. The corps, which not only twirls but also does amazing drill work, will appear between halves at football and basketball games.

CENTRAL HIGH

The Central choir has been recognized as one of the outstanding organizations at Central. The choir members work hard to bring all types of music to our assemblies, and various other programs they perform in each year.

Their repertoire ranges from sacred music to rhythmic popular tunes.

"Christmas Eve in Other Lands" was the title of their annual Christmas program. They participated in two music festivals this year, one at Stillwater, directed by Dr. Peter Wilhousky, and another given here in Oklahoma City for the District Music Convention. Dr. Lara Hoggard, an assistant to Fred Waring, directed a workshop that preceded the concert in which four high schools took part.

The whole school looks forward each year to hearing the music presented by the choir for our commencement program at the Municipal Auditorium.

Under the excellent sponsorship of Miss Eva Lee, the Music Club has done much to promote the appreciation and understanding of good music. Under the sponsorship of Miss Ruth Snell, Entre Nous was organized in 1945 in an effort to promote better understanding of French people, language, and customs.

Outstanding events of the social calendar included a Christmas party given by former members at the home of Louellen Dougherty, class of '50; a rushee party, and the Founders' Day picnic.

Meetings are held regularly twice a month and frequently feature various French speakers whenever it is possible to secure them.

PAN AMERICAN CLUB

The Pan American Club, under the capable sponsorship of Miss Dorothy Angevine, has rapidly progressed in the spirit of understanding between the United States and Pan America. The purpose of the organization of the club was to promote friendships and good will with our Southern neighbors.

The activities of the club include bi-monthly meetings held in the homes of members, a delicious dinner at El Charrito's Mexican Cafe, and a spring picnic at the end of the school year, honoring graduating seniors.

To be a member of the club one must spend a time of pledgship. During this time he must memorize all the Pan American countries and their capitals, and give a short speech about some interesting topic concerning Latin America. Finally at the end of the year he is initiated.

Through these activities members hope that they will gain the universal understanding so often talked about but rarely practiced.

THESPIANS

The National Thespian Society was established in the spring of 1929 by a group of teachers and students interested in the advancement of dramatic arts in the high schools. The aims of the society are twofold: (1) to establish and promote standards of excellence in all phases of dramatic arts, and (2) to create an active and intelligent interest in dramatic arts among students. There are over one thousand troupes in secondary schools in the United States, Alaska, Canada, Panama Canal Zone, Hawaii, and Japan. Central's troupe is number 822. Qualifications for membership include participation in plays, work backstage, superior work in dramatic classes, and promotion of dramatic arts in the school and community. Central's chapter meets the second and fourth Monday afternoons in room 110. At present there are thirty-six active members. Initiation for new members is held twice a year, in January and May. Only Juniors and Seniors are eligible for membership.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

The National Forensic League is an honorary society for high school students who have excelled in the field of competitive speech. N. F. L. promotes interest in interscholastic debate, oratory, and public speaking by encouraging fellowship and by awarding deserving participants with certificates of accomplishment. All members of this club are in the upper two-thirds of their class scholastically, and are elected to membership by a three-fourths vote of the active chapter. This is a national organization with over 1,000 chapters in the United States.

The Red Cross at Central, a branch of the National Red Cross, is one of the more important clubs from the standpoint of service. Its main purpose is service to the school and to people in need.

During the annual membership drive, the students are urged to contribute as much as possible to this worthy cause. The student participation is again carried out through the filling of gift boxes that are sent to Europe and Asia and are distributed among the children and young people there.

JEFFERSONIANS

As a club for all boys interested in speech, the Jeffs were organized in 1905. The club still thrives today with this same purpose. It participated in the Ciceronians' forensic contest and sponsored the annual Jeff-Cice debate.

Alumni from many years back returned to the annual stag banquet. These "alums" were a great help to the club's small membership.

Another annual event was a hayrack ride held in the spring.

STAGECRAFT

One of the most useful groups at Central is the stage crew. These hard-working people who rarely receive applause are usually chosen from the Black Shirt Pep Club. They are boys who are interested in stage work and are usually members of at least one of the many classes in stagecraft offered at Central. For their loyal, careful work, we thank them.

The Central High School Chapter of the Honor Society, founded in 1921, is the oldest in the state. Membership in the Honor Society is one of the highest achievements that any student can attain.

Members are chosen from the upper 15% of the senior class and the upper 5% of the junior class on the basis of their excellence in scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Members of the Honor Society sell school supplies to buy golden O's and honor roll awards. Senior members take one-day tours of O.U. and A. and M. College.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS

Students enrolled in diversified occupations classes spend half a day at school, and half a day in various occupations which may or may not become their chosen fields in the future. Problems arising in work experiences can be studied in classes. Both trade and industrial programs claim the interests of these boys and girls, who become fitted for responsible jobs while also taking the required academic courses.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The Future Business Leaders of America is a new organization which has been formed here at Central only this year. Any student who is taking at least one business course may become a member of this club.

At meetings, held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, the members learn how to apply for jobs in the business world, and how to keep them.

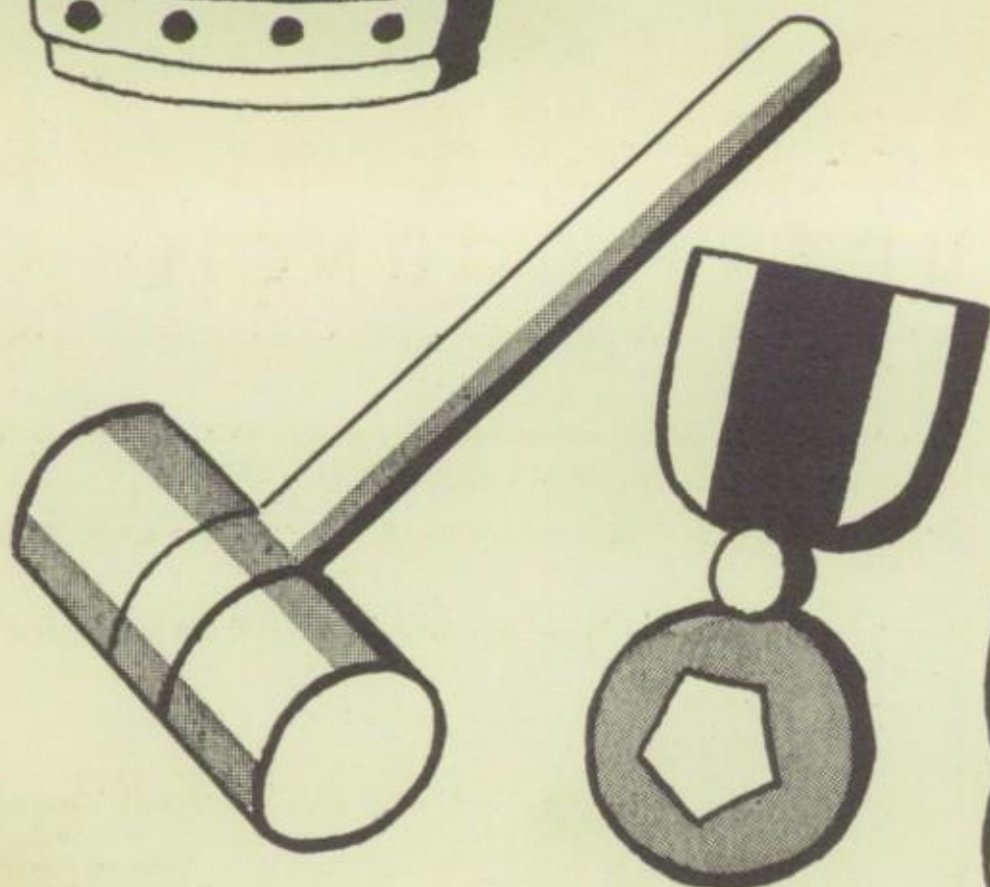

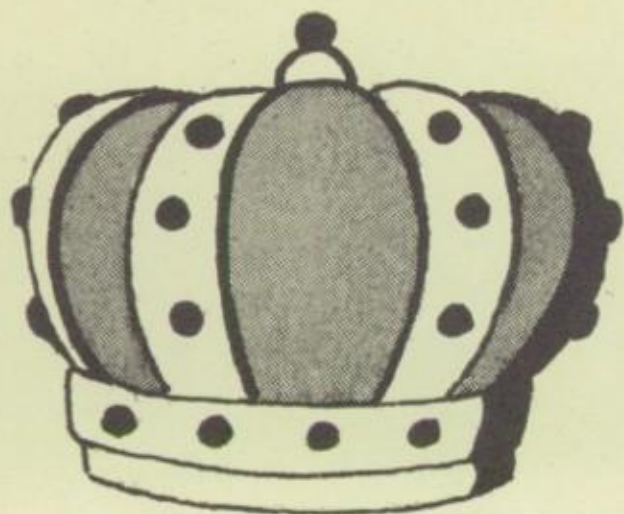

The pin and the membership card are most helpful in obtaining employment after graduation, as they are recognized by business men all over the country.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Our Student Council was organized in 1921 for the purpose of promoting better understanding among the students and faculty.

Representatives from every homeroom, organization, and class now meet daily as a class. The Council not only transacts school business but also studies parliamentary procedure and practical speech courses.

The main project for this year was the planning of the formal banquet for the S. A. S. C. Convention held in Oklahoma City in October.

Under the leadership of the presidents, Marvin Gerson and Max Wells, the Student Council has made great advancements in developing understanding in Central and in the community.
